Dear Jeff:

April 26 would be the best time for me to lead a discussion on CBW. If you would like a panel, and are willing to pay some travel money, I might suggest bringing up one or two others. For example, Herbert Scoville, George Bunn, or General Stone might liven things up a bit. If you want me to invite someone else I will think harder about the choices and whether we really should do it.

Sincerely yours,

Matthew Meselson
