Dear Matt:

Thanks so much for the Christian Science Monitor article.

While I await word that the Fulbright report is out I am saying exactly the same thing as before, to a different audience (enclosure). Actually this is a minor expansion of an article of months ago.

Yours,

P.S. That is Canada hurrying along in second place in the picture, firmly caught up in the rubber hose. (You may not have seen the Can. flag before; it was only recently de-classified).
