Dear Matthew:

There are rumours of change in the Canadian position,
with counter rumours of awful retribution from the U.S.
(these latter emanating from our Defence sources).

I leave for three weeks in Europe in ten days time, with a vast amount of work to finish first. If you have any firm date for the publication of the Fulbright Committee's report I could lodge my shelved article with the Globe and Mail, and be confident of publication. Could you phone me (collect) if you have such a date? Perhaps I'll phone you.

Very many thanks,

P.S. The Star is also read in Ottawa quite faithfully. It ranks second to the Globe as a harrasing agent.
