Dear Professor Meselson,

Some time ago you sent us the following materials on the current status of the ratification of the 1925 Geneva Protocol:

1. "Gas Warfare and the Geneva Protocol of 1925," Statement of Matthew Meselson before Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, March 26, 1971.
2. "The Consideration of the Geneva Protocol of 1925," Statement of McGeorge Bundy before Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, March 19, 1971.
3. "Banning Chemical Warfare," Washington Post, March 20, 1971.
4. "Perverting the Geneva Protocol, New York Times, March 26, 1971.
5. "Turning Off the Gas," MSM in Christian Science Monitor, May 15.
6. Releases, U.S. Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, April 15 and June 8, 1971.

At the time, I believe, the idea was that we could publish excerpts from these materials or that someone would integrate the materials into an article. As we are still interested in publishing an article on this topic, hopefully in early 1972, we wondered whether these materials needed updating? And, do you wish to integrate these materials, or write an intro to selected excerpts?

Yours sincerely,

Susan Cullen
