24 November, 1972.

Dear Matthew,

Thank you so much for sending me the record of the Hearings on the Geneva Protocol. You have been responsible for much progress and I was delighted to read so forthright a statement as that of McGeorge Bundy to back up your own reasoned statement.

But if only Henry had the good taste to take that grin off his face when he is photographed with his blondes at the very moment that more thousands of tons of bombs are being dropped for so useless a purpose - unless it be that there are some who wish to make sure that by no conceivable chance the inhabitants of South East Asia ever forgive the white man.

Yours ever,

S. Zuckerman
