Dear Mr. Trooboff,

You probably thought that I simply ignored the manuscripts you so kindly sent me in Paris this summer. The fact is that they have only just now reached me. Apparently they arrived in Paris after I had left the Hotel d'Isly and it has taken all this time to catch up.

I was most interested in both papers and would very much like to know of any additional material regarding the Geneva Protocol that may have been generated at the meeting on 7 October.

Thank you very much for all the trouble you took. I regret that I was not able to serve you better.

Sincer
Sincerely yours,

Matthew Meselson
