Dear Pat,

Thank you for your note of 19 November. Actually, we have already sent out an acknowledgement of acceptances but I was remiss in not sending you a copy. Yesterday and today I have spoken with Mikulak and Robinson who are both actively writing and planning to have a draft in our hands by 15 December. Robinson says that his draft may need retyping by the Academy office. I assume that this can be done quickly as soon as the manuscript arrives.

I am not yet ready to send out the tentative agenda but will do so before long. I may make some changes in the list of discussants.

Sincerely yours,

Matthew Meselson
