Dear Craig:

This letter will confirm our invitation to participate in the Conference on Policies for Chemical Weapons and Chemical Arms Control to be held at the American Academy on January 21-22. We are most pleased that you will be joining us at that time.

I am enclosing a note describing the objectives of the Conference, a list of the members of the organizing committee, the provisional agenda and list of participants, and a map showing the location of the American Academy. Under separate cover we are sending copies of the three papers prepared for the Conference.

For the final version of the list of participants will you please let us know what title and/or affiliation you would like to have included in your entry. We have reserved overnight hotel accommodations for you at the Chestnut Hill Hotel for the evenings of January 20 and 21.
