Dear Matthew:

It took a while to decide on an eclectic collection on battlefield tactics in the PGM era. Here are (1) my original piece which became an Adelphi Paper; (2) a talk by Phil Karber with some good comments; (3) an example of an overenthusiastic piece from Fortune. (The nuclear part is kind of nutty, but the conventional part not bad.) I also enclose my recent paper for the Seminar.

Meanwhile--your Carnegie papers just arrived.

It was good to meet you both.

I'll be in touch.

Cordially,

James Digby
