Dear Mr. McCullough,

Dr. Meselson has asked me to obtain copies of ~~several~~ the references cited in your report on CBW: Selected Issues and Developments, 1978-June 1979. One in particular is proving problematic:

Marriott, John. Chemical warfare. NATO's fifteen nations. June-July 1977: 53-56, 59-60, 63-65.

I have yet to locate any journal entitled NATO's Fifteen Nations ~~nor anyone~~ that has heard of it. Any clues? Or even better, a xerox of it?

Also, and only if it should be convenient please, would you be able to provide us with xerox copies of the following two papers referred to in your bibliography?:

Menaul, Stewart. Chemical and bacteriological warfare- the threat facing NATO. Foreign Affairs research institute. March 1979: 1-7.

Volz, Arthur. Soviet chemical warfare capability. Radio Liberty research. RI 437/76. 1976. 6p.

Incidentally, there is a typographical error in the bibliography, page CRS-53, for the reference to Sieghart, Paul. On locating the article, we found the page numbers to be 840-842, not 240-242.

Sincerely yours,

Michael A. McGrath
Secretary to M.S. Meselson
