Dear Drs. Meselson and Robinson:

I enclose rough versions of the illustrations that will be accompanying your article, together with the title and subtitle. The captions are keyed to the illustrations by number.

If there is anything wrong here, we should naturally like to know about it. We would be grateful, however, if you could put your comments in the mail to us within a day or two after you have received this letter. Once again I enclose a stamped and addressed envelope for that purpose.

Sincerely,

Dennis Flanagan
Editor
