Dear Mr. Joffe,

In case you wish to follow up the matter of publishing our Scientific American articles in Germany, you should contact either Gerald Piel or Dennis Flanagan at Scientific American Magazine, telephone 202-754-0550. I know that Piel, the publisher and an old friend, would be helpful. As I mentioned, the German publisher of Scientific American has an option each month to omit one article; that month ours was the one left out.

This may very well be much more than you are interested to read, but in case not, I enclose a copy of papers and discussion on chemical weapons from a conference which I organized some time ago.

It was a pleasure making your acquaintance.

Sincerely Yours,

Matthew Meselson
Prof. of Biochemistry
