Dear Mr. Lyons:

I enclose a proof copy of "A Higher Form of Killing" by Robert Harris and Jeremy Paxman and I hope that you find it interesting and that you will be able to put a review of it in a prominate place.

Generally speaking I found the book to be carefully done and loaded with interesting information.

I also enclose a copy of an article by J. Fred Swartzendruber you may not have seen.

Sincerely,

Matthew Meselson
