Dear Ms. Hammerman and Colonel Dupuy:

It was a great pleasure to have lunch with you last month. I look forward to meeting you both again, toward the end of January when my friend and colleague, Julian Perry Robinson will be able to join us.

Thank you for the lecture material on ground combat and for the report of the Medical Department on gas warfare. It was the section on malingering in the material you sent which I had promised to send you. Instead, I am sending some other things. They include part of a larger selection of declassified documents dealing with British and German policy for chemical warfare in World War II.

Sincerely yours,

Matthew Meselson
Professor of Biochemistry
and Molecular Biology
