Dear General Milstein:

I hope you will remember our meeting in the office of Emma Roschild at MIT last year. I am writing to ask you if you have any plans that would bring you back to Cambridge this Winter or Spring. If so, I would like to invite you to present a talk on any part of military history of your choice to my Harvard class of about 30 students who study military history.

For your possible interest I enclose a list of topics being covered in this course, ~~and a~~ partial list of readings.

I very much enjoyed talking with you when you were here and hope that an opportunity arises to do so again.

Sincerely,

Matthew Meselson
