Dear Matt,

When I went up to Maine to visit my son at Bowdoin College, I walked into the Student Union and there, facing me, was a large poster put up by the student Republican club which showed a picture of an alleged victim of yellow rain. There was no proof, just a statement, and I've been wracking my brain without success to figure out how you are going to do what you hope to do. No wonder you don't write books. But for God's sake let me know what happens or, I guess, I'll read it in the papers.

Good luck.

Cordially yours,

Arthur W. Wang
