Dear Matt,

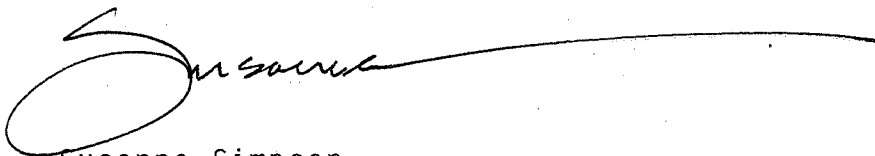

Thank you for sending the article on Yellow Rain that appeared in SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.

I've turned into an avid reader of articles on the subject and had read it about a week ago. I was especially interested to see that Jeanne Guillemin has completed some of her work regarding the refugee interviews.

The entire article was very well-constructed and seems to be quite thorough -- I noticed an editorial in the Globe that agreed.

Please keep in touch and let me know the reactions to the article.

Sincerely,

Susanne Simpson
