Dear Matt,

You were superb on Channel 2 the other night dealing with Chemical Warfare. There were plenty of booby traps floating all around and you avoided them all adroitly.

You used every available minute to keep the issue broad and global with emphasis on the treaty negotiations about to begin in Paris.

LB and I are proud to know you and were delighted and surprised to see you on TV. You're now a celebrity. We join in greetings to you & Jean.
