November 20, 1989

The Honorable Jim Moody
The United States House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Moody:

It was a pleasure to meet you at the breakfast John Isaacs organized last Thursday. I am sorry there was not more time for discussion. Also, I must apologize for not being able to make the 1:30 appointment with Congressman Spratt the following day. I had a conflicting appointment at the State Department. The next time I am in Washington, I would like to call on you and will contact the office of Congressman Spratt.

I enclose for your possible interest a copy of the talk I gave on November 17 at the AAAS Arms Control Colloquium.

Sincerely,

Matthew Meselson
Professor of Biochemistry
and Molecular Biology
