

Dear Matt,

30th Dec. '89

Only today did I see your letter of the 13th with the enclosures by V. Krimirovic and Krass. The "information" is so much at variance with what little information we do have that I don't know what to make of it. I have no idea of the "reported Soviet epidemiologist" still alive to whom V. refers. Also, I confess to my doubts about the reliability of V. himself. I agree with you that the continued reluctance of the Russians to act upon our repeated requests is suspect, but let us see if Vitaly's latest efforts produce results. Perhaps by the time you come here in January we will have some news.

Forgive the script. Everyone is on holiday. Happy New Year to all of you and love to your adulating daughters

Matt
