Dear Evelyn:

I have entered some changes on your draft article for DECISION. Since the US has, as I thought it would, abandoned the idea of continuing production after the Convention enters into force, I have deleted this subject from page three. Instead, I have inserted words regarding "The Two-Percent Solution". I enclose the new issue of our Bulletin with an editorial on this subject. For your interest I also enclose the text of a talk I gave at the recent meeting of the AAAS.

Sincerely,

Matthew Meselson
