Dear Dr. Matthew,

I was delighted to receive your letter dated 12 December, 1991 and appreciate your gesture to hold meeting in Pakistan. After thirty ~~three~~ years service with the Government of Pakistan, I am now retiring from service in March, 1992 and in these circumstances shall not be presently able to help you much in the holding of this meeting. As proposed by you, you may, however like to discuss your proposal with the Pakistan's Ambessadar in Geneva.

Cordially,

(S. M. ASIM)
