Dear Ms. Breedlove:

I enclose for your possible interest in connection with the special issue of JAMA now in preparation two papers I wrote for the White House in 1969 and 1970. This was in connection with President Nixon's review of U.S. policy for biological weapons and his subsequent review of policy for toxins. I believe that both papers were read by the President. As you know, the United States categorically renounced all biological weapons, including toxins. If you have any interest in publishing either paper please let me know.

Sincerely,
