

Date: Mon, 08 Sep 1997 11:09:44 -0400
From: Clyde Replogle <replogle@erinet.com>
To: Mathew Meselson <MSM@wjh.harvard.edu>
Subject: [Fwd: FW: Reaerosolization]

I have yet to reply to this. Have you seen this? I have no information at all.

Clyde

[Part 2: "Included Message"]

Date: Fri, 5 Sep 1997 09:27:23 -0400
From: "Kiple, Joseph B." <jbkiple@CBDCOM-EMH1.APGEA.ARMY.MIL>
To: "'Replogle, Clyde'" <replogle@erinet.com>
Cc: "'Jensen, Jerry'" <jensenj@stiusa.com>
Subject: FW: Reaerosolization

Have you heard anything about this??? I wonder who is presenting this information. Will forward anything I hear.

> -----

> From: Nicole Trudel [SMTP:trudeln@jpobd.osd.mil]
> Sent: Thursday, September 04, 1997 7:15 PM
> To: Kiple, Joseph B.
> Subject: Reaerosolization

>

>

> Joe,
> I'm not sure if you are aware of the following piece of > information.
> Ed Wolcuff recently attended a conference where he learned that > there may be evidence of casualties occurring from a reaerosolization > of Anthrax in Sverdlovsk (spelling?). Apparently, an (offensive) > anthrax facility had an accident that obviously resulted in immediate > casualties but later on after the fact, more casualties were > occurring from what must have been a reaerosolization of the anthrax. A > paper will be distributed referencing this incident and JPO-BD is on > the distribution list. I think this information could prove to be > very interesting and pertinent to our bio decon efforts. I will see > that you get a copy of this report as soon as it's been released. IDA > is actually considering the possibility of contracting a scientist > who worked at the facility in Sverdlovsk where the accident took > place.

>

> By the way, How are things going in the Bio Decon arena?

>

> Nicole

>

>

>

Date: Mon, 08 Sep 1997 11:10:25 -0400
From: Clyde Replogle <replogle@erinet.com>
To: Mathew Meselson <MSM@wjh.harvard.edu>
Subject: [Fwd: FW: Reaerosolization]

Next bit of rumor.
Clyde

[Part 2: "Included Message"]

Date: Fri, 5 Sep 1997 13:21:08 -0400
From: "Kiple, Joseph B." <jbkiple@CBDCOM-EMH1.APGEA.ARMY.MIL>
To: "'Replogle, Clyde'" <replogle@erinet.com>,
"'Jensen, Jerry'" <jensenj@stiusa.com>
Subject: FW: Reaerosolization

This is JPO/BIO's answer to the source of the info. I smell bullshit.

> -----
> From: Ed Wolcuff [SMTP:wolcuff@jpobd.osd.mil]
> Sent: Friday, September 05, 1997 2:23 PM
> To: Kiple, Joseph B.
> Cc: trudeln@jpobd.osd.mil
> Subject: RE: Reaerosolization

>
> It's likely that some/much of the info is coming from a previous > military deputy > of Biopreparat.

> Ed Wolcuff
> JPO-BD
> (703) 681-9619/DSN 761-9619

> -----Original Message-----

> From: "Kiple Joseph B." <jbkiple@CBDCOM-EMH1.APGEA.ARMY.MIL>
> Sent: Friday, September 05, 1997 9:28 AM
> To: Nicole Trudel
> Cc: Ed Wolcuff
> Subject: RE: Reaerosolization

> Who is presenting this information??

> > -----
> > From: Nicole Trudel [SMTP:trudeln@jpobd.osd.mil]
> > Sent: Thursday, September 04, 1997 7:15 PM
> > To: Kiple, Joseph B.
> > Subject: Reaerosolization

> >
> > Joe,
> > I'm not sure if you are aware of the following piece of
> > information.
> > Ed Wolcuff recently attended a conference where he learned that > > there
> > may be evidence of casualties occurring from a reaerosolization
> > of > > Anthrax in Sverdlovsk (spelling?). Apparently, an (offensive) > > anthrax
> > facility had an accident that obviously resulted in immediate

