Matt:

With the events of today, I think you should cancel the prospect of an article from me in the next issue. I don't think I would ask anybody to take the time to clear it now, and with some of the Milt Lightenberg comments that have just been published, I am not sure I would any longer want to print something trying to be moderate and balanced. I think a bunch of the NGO folks are going to need to get used to the idea that if they thought I and the USG were nay-sayers before, they haven't seen anything yet.

Sorry.
