Dear Matt,

We have now sent you the entire Katz thesis.

The material on the Russian connection is pages 38-top 40 and footnotes no. 62 and 63, and pages 188-192. The table is on page 192, and you must read the paragraph above it as well. [You must READ these and not ask me what it says.]

The crucial quote is "There was strong intelligence linking a mycotoxin research lab in the Soviet Union, with the application of yellow mist from helicopters in Afghanistan, with a laboratory in Cambodia, and with a yellow substance loaded into Pathet Lao planes in Laos." The citation for this is: "Telephone interview by author with Christopher Green, 25 Nov 2002 and 23 July 2003." This is what I discussed with him on the telephone. If all this is bullshit, then there is nothing left to the story at all. If it isn't, then this will be the only evidence and ALL the "evidence" from the field may be 100% incorrect.

How to deal with this is beyond me.

Regards, Milton
