Matt, Good to hear from you! Lets do catch up. I should be in Washington for at lest a couple of weeks in May and would be delighted to get together. I am the Europe VP for Boeing and have been doing this for almost five years now. About time to make a change as I have never had a job that lasted longer than five years. Many changes to talk about. You can reach me on this email or my personal email, Johnstone@jsolutions.com, or by cell phone at 571 426-2934.

Warm regards, Craig (in Seattle this week)
