

January 20, 1969

Mr. Harry S. Flemming
Special Assistant to the President-Elect
Office of the President-Elect
Richard M. Nixon
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Flemming:

Thank you very much for your letter of January 8, asking that I supply information relevant to a possible position in the new administration. I have decided that I do not wish to make application for such a position at the present time.

Sincerely yours,

Matthew Meselson

Dear Dr. Meselson:

You have been recommended for a position in the new Administration.

In reviewing the correspondence sent to us, we find that some needed information is missing. In order to fully evaluate your background, skills and experience, we would appreciate it if you would complete the enclosed form and return it to this office.

We want you to know that President-Elect Nixon is grateful for your participation in this important program and that your application will receive careful consideration as positions are filled.

Sincerely,

Harry S. Flemming
Special Assistant to the President-Elect
