Dear Vladimir, Sergei, and Ilona,

It now is more definite but not yet completely certain that Jeanne and I can come to Ekaterinburg approximately 20 August if that time is not inconvenient for you. What do you think?

I have received several pieces of literature from the Maryland Transplant Resource Center. Should I send them to Olga in Evanston to be brought to you by a traveller, wait and bring them myself or discard them?

We hope all is well with you and your families.

As ever,
Matthew.
