

HENRY A. KISSINGER

August 16, 2023

Dear Matt:

Thank you for your letter on the occasion of my 100th birthday, along with your late wife's book of poetry and notes from our lunch in 2002.

Your wife's poetry was as moving as your efforts to publish it. With your touching foreword, the book symbolizes the mutual support that gives meaning to life.

Jeanne's notes on our 2002 lunch demonstrated the same powers of observation that inspired her poetry. At 100, as at 78, I continue to love what I do, and I still have no intention to retire. I applaud your own commitment to continued contributions and would welcome the opportunity to meet again.

Warm regards,

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of a stylized 'H' followed by a horizontal line and a vertical line at the end, resembling a signature.

Henry A. Kissinger

Dr. Matthew Meselson
Thomas Dudley Cabot Professor of the Natural Sciences
Harvard University
16 Divinity Avenue
Cambridge, MA 02138