

ONE TWENTY BROADWAY
NEW YORK, N.Y. 10005

January 15, 1970

Professor Matthew S. Meselson
Harvard University
Cambridge, Massachusetts

Dear Professor Meselson:

It occurred to me after our conversation this afternoon that, although I will not be seeing Henry for a couple of weeks, I can reach him by telephone. I will call him early next week and urge that he meet with you promptly.

Hoping to see you in March.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "G. V.ance". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, looped initial "G" and a vertical line extending downwards from the "V".