Dear Mr. Nagorski:

Thank you for your letter of January 20. I would be delighted if Ivan Bennett can come to the Council discussion in March. He is a good friend and we have often appeared together at discussions of chemical and biological warfare. It might be somewhat redundant to have us both present at the forthcoming discussion, especially since Bennett has already spoken to the Council. However, I suggest that you let him be the judge.

Sincerely yours,

Matthew Meselson
