Dear Professor Meselson,

Congratulations on your letter in the London Times. I also wrote to the Times sometime ago on the same topic. I have enclosed a copy of it.

I enclose herewith a paper I have prepared on "The Inter-Relationship between the Humanitarian Laws and the Law of Human Rights" which you may find of interest.

The whole question of strengthening the Hague and Geneva Conventions and of outlawing chemical, bacteriological and biological weapons is now under active consideration at the United Nations. The enclosed paper deals with some aspects of these problems that deserve attention.

Yours sincerely,

Sean MacBride
