Dear Professor Meselson:

Thank you for your prompt reply to my FAX of July 10. I have enclosed Hugh Crone's final manuscript, and again what we require is a short report, one or two pages, indicating its readiness for publication along with any other comments or suggestions you may have. There is no need to return the manuscript.

We can offer you an honorarium of $150 cash or $300 worth of Cambridge books. You may indicate your choice with your report, and some recent catalogs are enclosed if you decide to choose the books.

Thank you again for your assistance.

With Best Wishes,

Sincerely,

Andrew Martin
