Dear Matt:

I am enclosing, somewhat belatedly, the speech we gave on CBW outlining our approach to the arms control problems. Personally, I doubt that the Committee will decide upon a course of action this year. I have also enclosed a couple of recent articles from the Soviet press which may be of interest to you.

If the Carnegie papers have been published, I would appreciate a copy for my use here. I expect to be back in Washington the first week in May.

Best regards,
